

KILLED WOMAN HERE, THREW BODY IN POOL, HE SAYS

Confession in Los Angeles May Clear Mystery of Leona Mayfield's Disappearance.

LOS ANGELES, Dec. 8.—On Aug. 11 Leona Mayfield, twenty-five, was reported missing from her home in New York City. To-day George St. Jean, alias George Christman, serving a term in the Los Angeles County Jail for grand larceny, confessed he had murdered her and thrown the body in a pool of water in Dawson Street, Long Island City.

"I had to confess. I have seen her face in my sleep. I don't care what you do to me, but I must tell the truth," Christman told the detectives.

"I first met Leona Mayfield in Los Angeles early last June," said Christman. "I was an automobile repairman in a large shop in this city. We lived together during June and then went to San Juan Capistrano. The girl was employed in a cafe there. I was working in a garage."

"From there we went by many stages to New York. We still posed as married. I got work in a garage and she in a cafe. On the night of Aug. 11 we went for an automobile ride with an ex-convict, Leona and I were in the back seat and were quarrelling. She threatened to turn me over to the police for a violation of the Mann act."

"My temper got the best of me and slipping off my necktie I wound it around her neck. She screamed and my companion grabbed her by the feet. I then strangled her to death. We wrapped the body in two silk shirts and then in a piece of oilcloth and dumped it into a large pool of stagnant water on Dawson Street. I don't know just where."

MODERN DANCE "MORAL MENACE AND ROAD TO RUIN"

South Carolina Baptists Concede,
However, World Is Not Going to the Devil.

GREENVILLE, S. C., Dec. 8.—"The modern dance is a menace to public morals and is leading many to wreckage and ruin." This is the view taken by the South Carolina State Baptist Convention in a report adopted to-day. The report declared it is the custom in many religious circles to acquiesce silently in this evil which is accompanied by extremes and often by immodest dresses which sometimes undermine the morals.

"The world is not going to the devil," the report admits. The convention reported in its behalf that prohibition has not accomplished all that it is capable of accomplishing.

ROBBER SUSPECTS CAUGHT IN JERSEY

One Said to Have Admitted They Were Going To Hold Up
Station Agent.

Jersey City police campaign against undesirable from other communities and the carriers of concealed weapons resulted to-day in the arrest of five men in a heavily armed motor car, one of them confessing, the police said, that they were on their way to hold up a railway paymaster in a patch of woods near Easton, Pa., this afternoon.

The arrest was made at Hackensack River Bridge and West Newark Avenue by Sgt. Sennessey and three detectives. When they halted the car, the driver, Felix Rappole, twenty-six, of No. 110 Vernon Street, Long Island City, drew a pistol, but Sennessey covered him with his own and the five were ordered from the car.

In the machine were found two revolvers, a loaded shotgun and several blackjacks. The prisoners were taken to the Oakland Avenue Station. The other four said they were Vincent Gumbo of No. 57 Thompson Street, Manhattan; Louis Denarchino of No. 13 Borden Avenue and John Rappola of No. 79 Borden Avenue, both of Long Island City, and Anthony Luro of No. 80 Seventh Street, Manhattan.

They will be arraigned in the First Criminal Court to-morrow, charged with carrying concealed weapons.

MAN GETS ANTHRAX FROM SHAVING BRUSH

Farmer Goes to Bellevue for Serum Treatment.

Peter Abramowski, forty-nine, a farmer of New Hyde Park, L. I., went to Bellevue Hospital in a taxicab last night, a sufferer from anthrax. His wife accompanied him. He said he was sure the disease was communicated by a shaving brush he bought in a Hyde Park store three weeks ago.

The farmer said he used the brush three times. The last time was on Saturday. On Monday he noticed a rash on the right side of his face.

MAN AND WOMAN HELD AFTER APARTMENT FIGHT

South American Swathed in Bandages in Court.

Wearing expensive jewelry and a long fur coat, but with two black eyes, a broken nose and many bandages, Mrs. Florence Martinez, of No. 287 West Eighty-seventh Street, was arraigned on a charge of felonious assault before Magistrate Tobias in West Side Court this morning. The complainant was Gilbert San Lucas, twenty-five, of No. West Eighty-fourth Street. San Lucas also was swathed in bandages. There was a counter charge of felonious assault against him.

Detective Dunne said San Lucas had come into Roosevelt Hospital last evening with stab wounds in his face, head, arms, back and other portions of his anatomy. He told the court he had called on Mrs. Martinez last evening and they had disagreed because he refused to obtain liquor. He declared she had attacked him with a knife, a fork, an ice pick, a lemon squeezer and a revolving egg beater.

Mrs. Martinez, according to the police, said San Lucas had come to her home to borrow money. Her refusal to lend money infuriated him and she struck her. They were held in $1,000 each for examination on Dec. 15. San Lucas comes from Ecuador and Mrs. Martinez is a Colombian.

RAILROAD EARNINGS JUMP.

October Receipts Largest in Months—Operating Expenses Drop.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 8.—Net railroad earnings for October amounted to $105,196,233, the largest figure in many months, according to figures compiled to-day from Interstate Commerce Commission reports by the Association of Railway Executives. The earnings rate thus demonstrated the association said, however, would be but 5.1 per cent. on the railroad property involved. It was accompanied by "reduction of maintenance to the lowest standards consistent with safety."

The statement credited a part of the earnings shown to the fact that October was normally the heaviest traffic month of the year, while the threat of a general strike increased business for commercial courses. M. E. Siegel, Director of Evening Schools, said yesterday sufficed for only 120 days instruction in the present term. The classes will be resumed after the holidays, when the 1922 budget money becomes available.

"DANDERINE"

Grows Thick, Heavy Hair
35-cent Bottle Ends all Dandruff,
Stops Hair Coming Out

Ten minutes after using Danderine you can not find a single trace of dandruff or falling hair and your scalp will not itch, but what will please you most will be after a few weeks' use, when you see new hair, fine and downy at first—yes—but really new hair—growing all over the scalp. Danderine is to the hair what fresh showers of rain and sunshine are to vegetation. It goes right to the roots, invigorates and strengthens them, helping the hair to grow long, strong and luxuriant. One application of Danderine makes thin, lifeless, colorless hair look youthfully bright, lustrous, and just twice as abundant.
